Contribution Reward Scheme for Senior Lecturers

Proposal for Contribution Increment(s)

A proposal should be made by the individual concerned by completing Part 1 of the form.

Once completed the form should be submitted to the relevant FPC Secretary.

Part 1: To be completed by applicant

Contribution Increments are awarded to recognise a senior lecturer’s outstanding and sustained excellence in teaching, and outstanding and sustained general and/or administrative contributions over and above the normal expectation for the role for a period of not less than 1 year, with the expectation of continued working at that level.

If you wish to be considered please complete Part 1 of this form, setting out the reasons for your application and providing evidence of your personal contribution to teaching and general/administrative contributions over and above the level expected of a person performing competently as a senior lecturer, in support of the academic objectives of your Institution.

Please submit your completed application to the relevant FPC Secretary.

I wish to be considered for (please tick)¹:
One Contribution Increment
Two Contribution Increments

I confirm that I meet the eligibility criteria set out below:

- I am a senior lecturer
- I have reached the maximum service point for my grade (Grade 10, point 61) as at 1 October 2016
- I have been in my post and performing my duties at my current grade and on point 61 for at least one year prior to 1 October 2017

Please set out in full overleaf (or on an attached sheet) the reasons for your application and, where appropriate, explain why more than one increment is requested. You should refer to the teaching and general contribution criteria for University Senior Lectureship detailed in 5.15, 5.16 and 5.17 of the Senior Academic Promotions guidance when setting out your case, giving quantitative evidence, including dates, where possible, as well as setting out the added value of your achievements and details of sustained leadership.
