Urgent Recruitment of Study Assistants (scribes)

We are currently recruiting non-medical helpers to support a PhD student in the High Energy Physics group in the Cavendish Laboratory. The student works with the help of a scribe and needs support in this capacity.

You will need:

- To have first degree in Physics, Computing or other mathematical sciences
- Knowledge of LaTex is essential, C++ and/or Python preferred
- To have a good command of the English language, and an ability to listen and take dictation
- To be able to commit to the role for at least a term

Study Assistants are paid £13.50 per hour. Scribes are required to work hours covering 5-7 days per week, including weekend work. Any availability will be considered.

If you are interested please contact Isabella Lancaster – Disability Support Co-ordinator nmh@admin.cam.ac.uk as soon as possible.
